1	Number of GPS installations	Total number of GPS installations in the fiscal period. GPS monitoring can be ordered by a judge for certain offenses as a condition of bond, or after conviction as a condition of probation. These individuals have a GPS ankle monitor installed by APD staff. GPS is used in cases where an individual's movements may be restricted from certain geographic areas, including within a certain area of a victim. Victims may also opt to carry a mobile device that sets a mobile exclusion zone. If an offender breaches this zone, an alert is triggered and Home Confinement responds.	5,211	4,437	5,670	5,054	1,397	1,605	744	197	3,943	Monthly GPS activation totals (including RF pilot numbers) kept by deputy chief in charge of Home Confinement Unit - based on vendor reports and billing information.

1	Risk assessments completed	Total number of risk assessments completed within the fiscal period. The Department utilizes the validated Ohio Risk Assessment System (ORAS) to conduct pre-screens and full risk assessments, which include a file review and structured interview to gather information about a probationer's criminal history, education, employment, financial situation, social support, etc. A probationer's assessed risk level determines recommended level of supervision on probation. Per Department policy, each probationer is subject to the ORAS pre-screen, and it is recommended that those who score moderate to high risk have a full risk assessment conducted.	194	1664	111	888	15	29	50	46	140	Monthly account of assessments completed generated from data entered in cFive.
2	Sanctions imposed	Total number of sanctions imposed by the drug court team within the fiscal period. Drug treatment courts use sanctions to address less serious issues of noncompliance with conditions of probation. The goal of this process is to facilitate behavior change with a focus on recovery, rather than punishing the probationer for infractions.	113	30	55	43	41	6	18	3	68	Monthly account of sanctions filed, generated from data entered in cFive.
