Department Number and Name:	313-Social Service	Program Description:	The unit reviews and approves or declines the requests of offenders to move into and transfer their supervision into Cook County and provides tracking and supervision of approved offenders, be it from within Illinois or out-of-state. It also manages cases for persons sentenced in Cook County who reside outside of Cook County at the time of sentencing, or who move outside of Cook County, within Illinois or another state, during their period of supervision. For persons residing in a state other than Illinois, the unit processes a request to the other state asking for courtesy supervision of our case through the Interstate Compact Office. For persons residing within Illinois, but from a county other than Cook, the unit processes a request to the other county asking for courtesy supervision directly through its probation department. If a person is rejected for any reason by another state or county, the court is informed of the rejection and that the person will not be directly supervised if allowed to remain in the other jurisdiction. The court's ruling specific to reporting status will be followed.
